THE HUNT

Arkansas

Our lodge is located in the heart of the renowned Mississippi Flyway, near Stuttgart, Arkansas. An area known as “The Duck Hunting Capital of the World” attracting literally thousands of waterfowl and waterfowl hunters year after year.

Our lodge provides excellent mallard, gadwall and pintail duck hunting on privately owned rice and soybean fields. These fields are flooded and specifically managed to attract large numbers of waterfowl to help ensure hunter success.

Upon your arrival, a guide will meet you at the lodge to outline the next morning’s hunt. Early the next morning the guide will meet and escort you to the location you will be hunting. All of our fields border the renowned Bayou Meto Wildlife Management Area. You will then be transported right to the step of one of our many comfortable blinds. In most cases there is no need for anything more than knee boots! Our guides are friendly professionals with years of waterfowl hunting experience that look forward to sharing their passion of waterfowl hunting and make your hunt enjoyable and successful, leaving you wanting to come back again and again! Upon completion of the hunt, guides will transport you back to your vehicle, assist in tagging all birds and escort you back to the lodge.
